

ONE-DAY POSTGRAD COURSE IN
CURRENT ECOLOGY & EVOLUTION
PROVISIONAL SCHEDULE

Sunday 26 November, 2017,
Cypress Lakes Conference Centre Hunter Valley,
in association with EcoTas2017

Time	Speaker	Provisional subject
9:00	Adrienne Nicotra, ANU	Opening remarks
9:05	David Keith (UNSW and NSW OEH)	A brief introduction to the history of ecology in Australia
9:30	Dave Kelly (U Canterbury, NZ)	A southern perspective is a global one
9:55	Emelie Ens (Macquarie Uni)	Management on traditionally owned lands
10:10	Focus group 1: Revisiting the concepts of invasion and exoticism
10:40	Morning tea
11:15	Focus groups report back
11:45	Daniel Falster (UNSW)	Emerging ideas in strategy theory
12:00	Carla Sgro (Monash Uni)	Evolutionary biology and adaptation to environmental change
12:15	Kate Umbers (Western Sydney Uni)	New directions in animal ecology: mimicry, colouration and more
12:30	Lunch
13:30	student speaker	A paper that influenced me
13:40	student speaker	A paper that influenced me
13:50	TBD
15:05	TBD
14:20	Craig Johnson (UTas) & Rachael Gallagher (Macquarie U)	Perspectives on Open Access Data
15:00	Focus group 2: Open access data and you
15:30	Afternoon tea
16:00	Focus groups report back
16:30	All speakers	Panel discussion/Concluding remarks
17:00	On to registration and mixer for EcoTas2017

The postgraduate course is organized by Adrienne Nicotra (Adrienne.nicotra@anu.edu.au) and Susanna Venn (Susanna.Venn@anu.edu.au) at the Division of Ecology and Evolution, at the Research School of Biology Australian National University